A REPORT TO THE PUBLIC

In which we review 1942 and ask for your co-operation in the war months ahead

Looking back over the year just ended, we believe a report of our operations is of interest and will be helpful and informative to our many riders in Greater Boston.

As the war effort became more intense, an ever increasing number of persons turned to the "El" for transportation. Last December the greatest number of passengers were carried in any month in the railway's history. We have been able to handle the tremendously increased volume of riding because of two factors: first, because of the cooperation of thousands of workers in Boston in staggering their hours of work and riding; and, second, because of the existence of an extensive transit system properly maintained for years past.

In common with all transportation agencies, the Boston Elevated has co-operated with our Government in its conservation programs. As the year 1942 progressed the acute shortages of fuel oil, rubber, and gasoline demanded immediate action.

SAVING 250,000 GALLONS OF FUEL OIL A YEAR

Conversion of oil heating equipment to the use of Complete conversion has been made at all heating coal at 11 locations on the railway, including garages, carhouses and lobbies, is saving more than 250,000 gallons of fuel oil on an annual basis.

plants operated by the railway except at three locations, where only about 4,000 gallons of fuel oil will be used annually.

"GETTING IN THE SCRAP"

In 1942 the railway made available for war purposes more than 24,000 tons of steel, iron and copper-scrap. This scrap was made available by the removal of the Atlantic Avenue elevated structure, from abandoned street railway tracks and from the disposal of worn

SAVING OVER 11,000,000 BUS TIRE MILES

Bus service in duplication of existing rail service was discontinued or curtailed. Bus service furnished on lightly used lines or parts of lines was discontinued or limited to those parts of lines and to those periods of the day when such service was justified under war conditions. The operation of chartered buses for private groups was discontinued except to war plants and for military purposes. The steps taken are saving well over 11,000,000 bus tire miles on an annual basis and are resulting in substantial savings in gasoline.

NEW EQUIPMENT AND REPAIR PARTS DIFFICULT TO OBTAIN

The delivery to any transit company of new cars, buses and trackless trolleys and of repair parts has been sharply limited by the Government. In 1941, anticipating future difficulties in obtaining equipment, many cars and buses which were in storage were reconditioned. By virtue of this timely planning we believe that we face a crucial year able to perform the task of transporting large numbers of people in a war busy metropolitan area.

SAFETY RECORD

We are pleased to report that the Elevated for the sixth time won national recognition for safety by being awarded in 1942 the American Transit Safety Award. We owe the honor for this award to you-our riders -and to the various agencies and organizations working for safety in the community and especially to our employees for their continuous alertness in the safe operation of cars and buses.

A LOOK AHEAD

In 1943 there will be increasing difficulties in obtaining suitable manpower replacements, new equipment and necessary repair parts. There will be crowded cars and buses particularly at rush hours. In this respect we ask your understanding and your active co-operation. Here's how you can make your personal contribution to help meet wartime transportation problems:

FIRST: Plan to make your trip between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. or after 6 p.m. Such planning will leave room for essential war workers to get to and from work by "El". If you can possibly help it, please don't take the "El" between 5 p.m. and 6 p.m. — that's the most growded time of all.

SECOND: Upon entering a bus or car move away from the doors into the less crowded section. You'll help to speed service.

THIRD: Don't crowd into an already full car or bus. Wait for a less crowded one.

FOURTH: Have exact fare ready. A little foresight on everybody's part will save many precious minutes - save time for everybody.

FIFTH: During the dimout, stop the operator with a hand signal. Bright lights are out for the duration, so you'll be more easily seen if you signal with your hand. WHEN and where needed, we shall furnish transportation services to the limit of the railway's capacity, keeping always in mind, however, that the order of the day calls for the utmost conservation of all transportation facilities, so vital are they to the successful advancement of war objectives.

wood pulp, and because many men otherwise engaged in its "Give enough soon enough." production are now working in vital war industries.

The NEWS saw the trend of the times in this respect some time ago and last year decided that radical steps would have to be taken to adapt itself to war conditions.

To eliminate waste, we decided that the NEWS should be on sale at newsstands throughout Arlington, and that we would, as fast as routes are developed, ask our readers to cooperate by subscribing ten cents per month in order to receive the NEWS regularly.

The NEWS is the first newspaper of its kind in this section of the country, as far as we know, that has adopted this plan. As a result of our newsboy salesmen solicitations, over 3,100 families have already subscribed for the NEWS and more are coming in each week from our present controlled-circulation areas.

As a result of this policy, we believe that the NEWS, $281.50 worth of bonds. in its earnest desire to cooperate with the federal government's objectives, will eliminate waste of newsprint, and at the same time continue to serve the ever-growing number of readers who look forward to receiving the NEWS each week.

We hope to continue to serve all those who want the NEWS. You may cooperate by purchasing your copy regularly at a newsstand in your neighborhood, so that each news dealer can estimate his needs more accurately, or, you can have the NEWS delivered to your home each week by placing your order at our office, or from the newsboy on tackle additional snow shovelling your route.

THE MOST IMPORTANT GAME OF THE YEAR

Arlington is playing its most important game of the year this week when an all-star team is out to break the records of all past years. This sporting event, a thriller, consists of skimming snow drifts on skiis, hurdling snow banks, skating up your neighbor's steps, and punching his doorbell to score a point in the Greater Boston 1943 United War Fund the team than this year. A week of storm, snow, and sleet has left the course in most dangerous conditions. Every walk pavements, and with reduced visi- reward winners of winning essays. and set of stairs are a hazard in themselves. Illness has taken bility for drivers due to the dimsome of the varsity members, too. But there are the newcomers to the ranks who are just waiting for their big chance. And here it is. To win this year the Arlington mentors must score higher than in previous years. Such are the odds in the race to set up a new record in the drive for funds. Chairman Roscoe Elliott as head coach reports that in the anything which the public works say in the national finals will bring first few days the score was approaching the ten thousand department, as well as citizens an award of $1.000 to the writer. mark, a good start towards a real victory. This week as the themselves, can do to clear sidesun came out and the highway department cleared the streets walks will help pedestrians, and the race was on in earnest. Arguments as to past records autoists alike. Where sidewalks were challenged by the cry, "What are you doing this year?" Perhaps these cross-country specialists were thinking of should use them as far as possible the boys in prison camps - members of the Barbed Wire and thereby reduce the chances of Legion - to whom a few pieces of athletic equipment mean the difference between sanity and loss of everything. It is not difficult to visualize the joy of men - lovers of sports as Americans are - caught like trapped rats behind wire barricades - when they get some baseball equipment. It will not take long to get a game going. Others will watch. Even some one will umpire. It's a real touch of home. No wonder then over the cross country, over snow bank, under fences, and across ponds the solicitors hasten to score a new amount so that these men may get a break.

Our fighting men in the ranks of every branch of service have the real love of sports. Not forgotten are the days at high school when they played on the team. Later at college and so into the game of life was the spirit carried. Until the President, in an AP Wirephoto now it is the spirit that will win this real fight against the which appeared in the Boston Her-Axis. Many a man in the service is thinking of the sports, ald Saturday. wondering whether the home team is in there giving every-

Those who have seen the Fund movies have seen some glimpses of the activities that are financed in this way. Not all is for the man in uniform. Mr. Everyday Citizen and his family are being kept in the race of life by skillful medical attention, by wholesome recreation, and by sympathetic encouragement. George C. Carens, one of our own Arlington neighbors in his column in the Boston Traveler, Saturday, wrote of the notables from the field of sports who are playing in the game for keeps and others in the drive for funds to support the many activities of the War Fund. We quote two para-

"Hundreds of thrilling stories are cropping up daily about one-time athletes who are distinguishing themselves in the Battle for Freedom. It was my privilege a week ago tonight to hear one of these veterans of the playing fields give an off-the-record talk at the Clover Club dinner. Mike Moran, captain of the immortal U. S. Cruiser Boise, was a four-letter athlete at Annapolis and afterward was Navy's athletic director.

"America is jammed with men-of-action who learned lessons in sportsmanship and fair play on the nation's gridirons and diamonds. When so many demards are being made from the citizens, workers in the United War Fund will need that ertra something that they have carried over from sandlot, school or college games."

It is not the easiest game in the world to plough through snow drifts and ring doorbells. It is just a thankless task to pursue the dollar these days to keep our community in the race provide funds for this great undertaking, "The Newsprint on which your newspaper is printed, has 1943 Greater Boston United War Fund." There are no headlines nor cheers for the everyday men who come to collect. So why not be ready with your bit. Give enough soon enough. That is the only reward they ask. You can do it. It isn't for The United States government has asked all newspapers them. It's for some one else less fortunate than we - be it to reduce their use of newsprint due to war time uses for our neighbor nearby or our own son far away. We repeat,

THERE'S no honor, no glory, no medals, no cheers for this bitter, beaten man—nothing but endless, dreadful monotony, broken only by restless sleep in a cold, smelly room and a few dirty scraps of food.

And what has he done to deserve it?

He did the greatest, bravest, most unselfish thing a man could possibly do. He fought for you, your children, your home, your freedom. He fought with dwindling supplies—beside bleeding, dying, exhausted men—against ever-increasing odds—until finally he became a Prisoner of War.

You know this man. He's an American hero — a soldier from Greater Boston. And he knows you and what you can and will do to help him.

Silently he prays and pleads that you will give to the United War Fund—so that he may have books, games, musical instruments, athletic supplies and all the other things he needs to save his health and sanity. Hopefully he looks to you.

You'll do it - won't you?

You'll give to your United War Fund—not only to help him and all the other thousands in the Barbed Wire Legion, but also to help your 235 Community Fund Social Agencies, the USO, the local Soldiers and Sailors Committee and the United Nations Relief Fund—organizations that will make your community a better community, your fighting men better fighting men, and your world a better world.

Don't make it "too little, too late."

Give enough.. soon enough!

This winter if you are asked to curtail gas because it is needed for war production, please remember:

> 1 War plants need tremendous quantities of gas to make precision parts for bombers, fighting planes, guns, tanks, ships and other war goods.

2 Under normal conditions, we could obtain steel and other materials to enlarge our gas supply and meet all demands. Today, this cennot be done. 3 The use of gas in war plants conserves coke, coal and oil and relieves transportation, thereby enabling railroads to move war goods faster. Every one of us must help conserve vital fuels
